United Nations A/65/282/Corr.1

General Assembly

Distr.: General
3 November 2010

Original: English

Sixty-fifth session
Agenda item 68 (b)
Promotion and protection of human rights: human rights questions, including alternative approaches for improving the effective enjoyment of human rights and fundamental freedoms

Protection of and assistance to internally displaced persons

Note by the Secretary-General

Corrigendum

1. Section II.B, subsection 10

The title of the subsection should read

Georgia

2. Section III.A, paragraph 61

The last sentence should read

This was the case when, following the August 2008 conflict in Georgia, no United Nations humanitarian actors had access to the area because the Georgian authorities and the authorities in effective control sought to underline their positions by blocking the humanitarian access routes.[10]

[10] See A/HRC/13/21/Add.3, paras. 33-36. It remains to be seen whether the amendments to the Georgian "Law on the Occupied Territories" would contribute to resolving these concerns in practice. See A/64/819, para. 26.

10-63921 (E) 161110

Please recycle